Recommendation of the Law Commission for further Amendment of the International Crimes (Tribunals) Act 1973: Draft Amendment Recommendation

Whereas it is expedient, in view of the experiences of the working of the two tribunals established under the International Crimes (Tribunals) Act 1973 in 2009 and 2012, and in view of the regulatory social demand assessment, to make further amendment to the 1973 International Crimes (Tribunals) Act, it is hereby recommended to make the following amendments:

1. In Section 21(2), after the word acquittal, words “or an order of inadequate sentence” are to be inserted.
2. In Section 21(3) put coma after the word ‘sentence’ and then the words “or inadequate sentence” are to be inserted.
